TOUCHARD WINS FAST MATCH AGAINST WARD

BULL PUTS BURDEN OUT

Women Also Begin Play in the Lawn Tennis Tourney for Championship of Middle States.

Gustave F. Touchard eliminated Holombe Ward in the fourth round of the lawn tennis tournament for the championship of New Jersey yesterday afternoon by a Garrison finish. Outplayed from start to finish in the first set, Touchard was beaten 6-3, and the wise heads along the lines predicted his defeat. Just to show the critics their error, he came back strongly, and running Ward all over the court defeated him 7-5. That set took all the go out of the old champion, and he was an easy victim in the third set, going down at 5-2. Ward played the same brilliant game in the first set that won him the national championship in 1904. Time and again he pulled his rival up to the net and out of position to pass him with hard smashes down the side lines. Touchard then tried lobbing, but Ward was right at home at that style of play, and drove to the back court for points.

In the second set Ward had his opponent four down, as they say in golf, when Touchard changed his tactics, and by cross-court drives and clever placing pulled up to 5 to 4. Ward then won a game, bringing the set to deuce, but Touchard would not be denied and won the set at 7-5.

Ward weakened, or seemed to weaken. his defeat. Just to show the critics their Mard weakened, or seemed to weaken, in the final set, while Touchard grew stronger with every stroke. The latter placed his shots with the skill of a wizard and was never in danger.

C. M. Bull. jr., followed his triumph over F. C. Inman on Tuesday by defeating W. P. Burden in a slashing three-set match at 3—6, 6—4, 6—0. He was slow in getting down to his best game and lost the first set. Rallying strongly, however, Bull forced the fight in the second set and woh after a hard battle. His driving style stood him in good stead, and wore his opponent down, so that the final set was much in the nature of a walkover. Play began in the men's doubles and women's singles, and some prettily fought matches were witnessed.

Miss Edith Rotsch, champion of the Longwood Cricket Club, of Boston, won her two matches in decisive style. She easily outplayed Miss Curtis, of East Orange, in two love sets, and then proceeded to beat Miss Suzette Henry at 6—2, 6—3.

Miss Rotsch is regarded by many capable ludges as the probable winner of Maurice E. McLoughlin, of San Francisco, the American champion, continued his winning way by defeating T. M. Mavrogordato, of Oxford, in straight sets at 6-4, 6-3, 6-2.

McLoughlin varied his play, rushing to the net for spectacular "kills" when related to beat Miss Suzette Henry at 6-2, 6-3.

Miss Rotsch is regarded by many chapable judges as the probable winner of the tournament. She played a hard, driving game throughout, and was mistress of a service that might do credit to many a player of the stronger sex. Her placement shots were well nigh perfect, and seldom, indeed, was it that she drove into the net.

The summary follows:

Natom boxmen were on exhibition in the course of the afternoon, three from each side. Nap Rucker and Rube Chalmers started the game for their teams. Rucker was hammered out in the first inning, while Chalmers stuck around until the early part of the third before he quit.

Then came Alexander and Wagner. The former was knocked out of the box in the third inning, allowing five hits, which aided in the scoring of seven runs. Wagner, being no puzzle, was soon jacked out, and Pat Ragan went in to finish the Right and Byron. Time—2:90.
